Professor Pamela Bucy Joins Maynard, Cooper & Gale, P.C.

Birmingham, Ala. – Maynard, Cooper & Gale, P.C. is pleased to announce that Professor Pamela Bucy, the Bainbridge Professor of Law at the University of Alabama School of Law, has joined the firm as Of Counsel on an interim basis. Bucy will be with the firm during 2008 and 2009 while on sabbatical, and her practice will focus primarily on white collar issues including corporate compliance and government investigations.

Bucy has taught at the University of Alabama School of Law for twenty-one years, specializing in white collar practice. Prior to entering academia, Bucy served as an Assistant United States Attorney in St. Louis, Missouri, where she prosecuted criminal cases involving white collar crime. She has authored three books and numerous articles on health care fraud and white collar crime, testified before both the United States Senate and House on such matters, and is a frequent speaker nationally on white collar issues. Currently, Professor Bucy also serves as Vice-President of the Alabama State Bar and as an Alabama State Bar Commissioner.

The Birmingham-based law firm of Maynard, Cooper & Gale, P.C., with over 160 attorneys, offers a full array of legal services to a broad and diverse client base consisting of Fortune 500 companies as well as closely held companies, partnerships, professional associations, charities and individuals.

Maynard, Cooper & Gale is Alabama's only member of Lex Mundi, an international association of more than 140 widely recognized independent law firms, which by membership gives the firm access to high quality local legal expertise throughout the world. The firm is also Alabama's only member of the Southern Law Network, a regional network of independent law firms. For more information, visit www.maynardcooper.com.
