

2023 MINORITY LSAT PREP COURSE PROGRAM

Maynard Cooper & Gale's 14th Annual Minority Scholars LSAT Prep Course is geared to highly motivated minority students who intend to pursue a career in law. Offered in an interactive group setting, the class will present proven LSAT strategies and methods covering every skill tested on the June LSAT exam. Acceptance into the program will be based on college GPA, resume, and a personal statement.

The LSAT Prep Course provides complete preparation by KAPLAN test prep instructors and KAPLAN's nationally-recognized review materials. The expert instructors will be teaching through a live virtual classroom, with the opportunity for teacher/student interaction. Participants must commit to attend every live session.

Maynard will cover the cost for the KAPLAN LSAT Test Prep Course, in addition to providing the classroom facilities and the study materials for each student selected to participate. The firm will also reimburse students for the LSAT registration fee, contingent on excellent attendance and submission of test scores after taking the LSAT exam.

Class Schedule:

- May 16 Logic Games
- May 18 Logical Reasoning
- May 23 Reading Comprehension
- May 25 Logical Reasoning II
- May 30 Logic Games II
- June 1 Logical Reasoning III
- June 6 Reading Comprehension II & Logic Games III
- June 8 Logical reasoning IV & Countdown to Test Day

Click HERE to apply.

The deadline to apply is March 1.

Students selected to participate in the program will be notified by April 1.