

ATLANTA

Callie Passwater

ASSOCIATE

Callie's Profile

Callie is an associate in Maynard's Public Finance Group with a particular focus in the areas of federal tax and tax credits.

With her background in historic preservation, Callie enjoys working on matters involving historic tax credits as well as with tax exempt organizations. She also assists with projects involving new markets tax credits and opportunity zones. In addition, Callie is well versed in the area of international taxation and how the laws interplay with large businesses and transactions.

Callie received her J.D., cum laude, from Georgia State University College of Law, and she earned her LLM in Taxation from Georgetown University Law Center. She holds both a M.A., summa cum laude, and B.A., magna cum laude, in history from Middle Tennessee State University.

Callie's Awards

- Tennessee Association of Museums Award of Commendation for the exhibit "Legacy of Learning: A History of Central Magnet School's Campus," 2016
- Ernest Hooper History Scholarship, 2012

Bar Admissions

State Bar: Georgia

Education

- Georgetown University Law Center
 - (2022, LLM in Taxation)
- Georgia State University College of Law

Contact

T 678.916.5965

cpasswater@maynardcooper.c

RELATED INDUSTRIES/SERVICES

Public Finance

Tax

New Markets Tax Credits

Opportunity Zones

Charitable Foundations & Tax

Exempt Organizations

- (2021, J.D., Cum Laude, Mock Trial Team 2020)
- Middle Tennessee State University
 - (2017, M.A., in History, Summa Cum Laude)
- Middle Tennessee State University
 - (2013, B.A. in History, Magna Cum Laude)