David B. Ringelstein II

SHAREHOLDER

David's Profile

David is a Shareholder in Maynard Cooper's Public Finance Practice Group.

With more than 20 years of experience, David represents some of the country's premier financial institutions and underwriters in all aspects of bond financing across the United States. He works closely with national and state banking institutions, investment banking firms, governmental issuers, and private colleges and universities. David's practice focuses on municipal finance, school finance, 501(c)(3) finance and utility finance and recently completed serving for four years as national Chair of the educational panel of NABL's Bond Attorney Workshops comprised of nationally distinguished practitioners in public finance. He is also relied upon to assist municipalities and counties with economic development projects and is a frequent speaker at national and state events on public finance.

David's Experience

- Federal Lending: David is the primary bond counsel and noted authority for one of the federal government's long standing lending programs to rural water and sewer utility providers.
- 501c3 Financings: David has represented numerous regional banks on a national level as bond counsel and/or bank counsel in connection with providing tax-exempt direct placement credit facilities. He has served as lead bond counsel on projects in more than 17 states.
- Municipal Finance: David routinely serves as bond counsel to cities, counties, boards of education, universities, junior colleges, charter schools, and health care authorities, including serving as bond counsel to some of the fastest growing municipalities in the state.
- Utility Revenue Finance: David has served as bond counsel on tax-exempt financings for utility systems in virtually every county in the state of Alabama.
- Underwriter's Counsel: David routinely serves as underwriter's counsel to one of the country's largest underwriters of municipal bonds.
