Jennifer M. Moore

ASSOCIATE

Jennifer's Profile

Jennifer Moore is an associate in the Firm's national recognized Securities and Financial Services Litigation practice group. Jennifer's litigation experience includes the representation of broker-dealers before the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and in state and federal courts across the country against customer-initiated actions. Her practices focuses on the defense of financial institutions in securities claims related to suitability, churning, and other sales practice violations.

Jennifer is recognized by The National Black Lawyers "Top 40 Under 40" for the state of Alabama and holds the Earl H. Davis Advocacy Award, presented the The Olender Foundation in Washington, D.C.

Prior to joining the Firm, Jennifer served as a judicial intern for the Honorable Stephen C. Wallace of the Tenth Judicial Circuit of Alabama, Criminal Division where she drafted legal memoranda in response to post-conviction petitions from inmates in Alabama state prisons. As a Financial Innovation team leader at Regions Financial Corporation, Jennifer managed a team of ten interns tasked with implementing a financial literacy and college preparedness summer initiative for Birmingham City high school students.

Jennifer earned her J.D. cum laude from the Howard University School of Law and her B.A. from Vanderbilt University.
