Joshua Duvall

SHAREHOLDER

Joshua's Profile

Joshua Duvall is a Shareholder in the Washington, D.C. office of Maynard Cooper's Government Solutions Practice Group.

Josh is frequently called upon by government contracting executives and industry leaders to navigate their most pressing problems and business opportunities, drawing on his broad experience in the complex world of doing business with the federal government, including protests, litigation, compliance, cybersecurity, transactions, and even small business matters.

Josh regularly counsels and represents civilian and defense contractors in bid protests before the U.S. Government Accountability Office, U.S. Court of Federal Claims, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, and federal agencies; protests and appeals before the U.S. Small Business Administration (size, status, NAICS); teaming, joint venture, and subcontract agreements; claims and disputes; regulatory matters (FAR, DFARS, and other agency supplements); cybersecurity (insurance, CMMC, NIST SP 800-171); GSA schedule issues; and other complex matters with a nexus to federal procurement.

Prior to joining Maynard Cooper, Josh founded and managed a boutique government contracts law firm in Washington, D.C., where he counseled and represented small – 8(a), WOSB/EDWOSB, HUBZone, SDVOSB – and mid-size contractors in a variety of government contracting, business, and cybersecurity matters.

Josh received his J.D. from The George Washington University Law School, where he was a member of The Federal Circuit Bar Journal and fellow at the Competition Law Center.

Josh is Vice-Chair of the Bid Protest and Membership Committees for the ABA Section of Public Contract Law, is a Certified Information Systems
