Lauren's Profile

Lauren is an Associate in Maynard Cooper's Cybersecurity & Privacy practice group. She works with members of the team to assist clients with cybersecurity risk assessments, cybersecurity incident response planning, cybersecurity and privacy compliance, and data breach response. She also develops consumer-facing terms and policies for websites and smart device applications.

Prior to joining Maynard Cooper, Lauren served as a Cryptologic Intelligence Analyst in the United States Navy. She led teams of intelligence analysts in producing time-sensitive tactical reports in support of the Department of Defense and National Security Agency.

She earned her J.D., cum laude, from Washington and Lee University School of Law, where she was selected for the Mock Trial Team and the AAJ Trial Advocacy Competition in 2019, was a semifinalist in the W&L Law Client Counseling Competition in 2019 and W&L Law Mock Trial Competition in 2018, and a quarterfinalist in the Robert J. Grey, Jr. Negotiations Competition in 2018. Lauren also holds a Bachelor of Arts in Criminology from the University of South Florida.
