Meredith B. Wills

LOBBYIST/GOVERNMENT RELATIONS

Meredith's Profile

Meredith is a registered Alabama lobbyist with experience in lobbying to House and Senate bodies. She has experience in lobbying both Republican and Democratic lawmakers on legislative issues relating to clients. Meredith also researches issues and gets in front of any potential legislative actions that could have an effect on clients.

Upon completing her studies at the University of Alabama, Meredith lived in Washington, D.C. and worked in the United States Senate, United States House of Representatives, United States Department of Health and Human Services, and the East Wing of the White House. Before returning to Alabama, Meredith resided in New York City and worked for the Appeal of Conscience Foundation, a non-profit organization that promoted worldwide religious tolerance.

Prior to joining Maynard Cooper in 2017, Meredith served as a fundraiser for both political and nonprofit organizations including the Alabama Republican Party and the American Cancer Society.

Meredith Wills is a Legislative Consultant and Lobbyist working with Maynard Cooper and is not an attorney.
