Warren B. Lightfoot, Jr.

SHAREHOLDER

Warren's Profile

Warren is a Shareholder and member of Maynard Cooper's Litigation Section. A member of the Firm's Labor and Employment Practice Group, he has more than 30 years of experience representing and advising clients in all aspects of labor and employment matters, including significant wage and hour and federal discrimination litigation. Warren's commercial litigation and business tort practice encompass all aspects of non-compete enforcement, trade secret litigation, and competitive torts, as well as fraud, contract, and insurance disputes. He has successfully litigated, as lead counsel, dozens of such cases and, in his business tort practice, has obtained or defended companies against injunctions across the country.

Highly respected by his peers, Warren served as Chairman of the Alabama State Bar Labor & Employment Section and is a Fellow of the College of Labor and Employment Lawyers. His skills and accomplishments as a lawyer have earned him numerous accolades, among which are his distinction as a Leading Practitioner in Labor & Employment by Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business. He is also consistently included in The Best Lawyers in America® for his experience in the areas of Employment Management, Litigation: Labor and Employment, and Litigation: Mining Law, as well as in Alabama Super Lawyers and Mid-South Super Lawyers in the area of Employment and Labor Law.
